Monday, March 10th, 1746. [Numb. 624]

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

WHITEHALL, December 1.

BY Letters from Newcastle of the 28th past there is Advice, that Capt. Pitman, Commander of his Majesty's Sloop the Saltash, who was arrived there from Inverness, having seen a large Ship off Inverness on Tuesday last, had come so near her, that he fired a Broadside at her, and drove her amongst the Rocks at Petterhead, but could not follow her, the Wind blowing very hard. That he had next Morning spoke with a fishing Boat with four Men, who had been on board the said Ship, who told him that she had four Companies of Lord Drummond's Regiment on board, all dressed in Red, and spoke English; and that nine Sail more, all from France, with Soldiers, landed at Stonehive and Montrose upon the Coast.

Whitehall, Dec 2. Letters from Inverness of the 24th of November bring Advice, that Lord Loudon, having with him a considerable Force, consisting of Part of his own Regiment, and several of the Mens's, Lord Sutherland's, Mr. Grant's, and Lord Ross's People, and 400 of the Mackneds from the Isle of Sky, and having received the Arms and Money brought by his Majesty's Sloop Soltash, was preparing to let out to quell the Commotions in that Neighbourhood, to supply the Garrison with such Necessaries as they might have Occasion for, and to prevent Lord Lewis Gordon, who was lately come from the North, from giving any further Disturbance.

Whitehall, Dec 3. By Advices from Lancashire of the 29th, the main Body of the Rebels lay at Wigan and Leigh on the 28th. That Afternoon a Party of them came into Manchester, beat up for Volunteers for the Pretender, enlisted several Papists and Non-jurors, and offered Five Guineas a Man to any that would enter. Those who took the Money, had white Cockades given them, and marched about the Town with the Drum and the Serjeant. The Party above ordered Quarters to be prepared for 10,000 Men, who were to come hither the next Day. Upon the 29th the main Body moved towards Manchester. A Party of them arrived there at Ten in the Morning, and examined all the Houses, and afterwards fix'd upon one for the Pretender's Son's Quarters. By their Order the Bellman went round the Town to give Notice to all Persons belonging to the Excise, Innkeepers, &c. forthwith to appear, to bring their last Acquittances and Rolls, and all the ready Cash they had in their Hands belonging to the Government, upon Pain of Military Execution. About Two in the Afternoon, another Party arrived there with the Pretender's Son, who march'd on Foot in a Highland Dress, surrounded by a Body of Highlanders, and was proclaimed. That Night some of them gave out that their Route was for Chester, and others reported that they should march to Knutsford, through Middlewich and Nantwich into Wales.

Whitehall, Dec 2. By Advices from Lancashire of the 30th past, the whole Body of the Rebels was in and about Manchester that Day, and their Artillery was expected. A Report prevailed strongly there, as if they would endeavour to slip through Derbyshire or Nottinghamshire, to avoid the Duke of Cumberland's Army.

The first Battalion of Guards arrived at Litchfield that Morning, and the two other Battalions were expected there the next Day. Howard's Regiment was to be at Tamworth the same Day. The Duke of Bedford's Regiment marched into Litchfield, part on the 29th at Night, and part the next Morning.

Whitehall, Dec 3. There are Letters receiv'd To day, which mention that the main Body of the Rebel Army marched from Manchester on Sunday Morning last. That one Part of them had taken the Road to Stockport, and the other that to Knutsford; but that it was supposed they would join and go all together the latter Road.

Whitehall, Dec 1. An Express is arrived from Marshal Wade, with Letters of the 28th past from Pershbridge, where his Army was then encamped, with Advice, that he was upon his March through Yorkshire into Lancashire, and would be on Tuesday the 2d Instant at Wetherby.

Kirby Lonsdale, Dec. 2. On Friday last a Party of the Rebel Horse from Carlisle came to Penrith, demanded Quarters for 3000 Men, whom they reported to be upon the Road, and gave Orders that the Excise Money, Contributions &c. should be held in Readiness for them. Thereupon the People of the Town sent out Scouts to Penrith Fell to discover the Rebels, but no more appearing, the Fire Bell was rung, which alarmed and brought together great Numbers from all Parts, and they marched off for the Bridge, and from thence to Lowther Hall, of which they took Possession. The Country People immediately pursued them, surrounded the House, fired into it upon them, killed one, wounded several, and made ten Prisoners with all their Horses. Eight of the Rebels made their Escape over the Water. On our Side only one Man was wounded, who had the Misfortune to be shot through the Thigh.

Edinburgh, Dec 3. His Majesty's Ship the Milford, Capt. Hanway, fell in with and took off Montrose, on Thursday Afternoon, a French Ship with 310 Soldiers on board, bound from Dunkirk for Montrose, most of which are said to be Officers; and as they had Intelligence of more Ships of the same Kind, it is hoped some of them may fall in the Way of Admiral Byng's Squadron.

Whitehall, Dec. 7. By Advices from Litchfield, his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland arrived there with the Army on Thursday last, and having received Advice that the Rebels had taken Possession of Swarkston Bridge, before the Orders for breaking it down could be put in Execution, it was resolved to encamp the 6th on Meriden-Common, between Coleshill and Coventry, and this Day near Northampton, by which Means the Army would be there before the Rebels. The Men, who have been a good deal harrassed, bear the Fatigue of marching, and all others, with great Chearfulness, and seem to have no other Wish, than to come to an Engagement with the Rebels.

Whitehall, Dec. 7. There are Letters from the Camp at Wetherby of the 5th Instant, with Advice, that upon hearing of the March of the Rebels into Derbyshire, Marshal Wade had directed the Cavalry to begin their March that Morning towards Doncaster, and the Foot to follow the next Day.

The Army halted on the 5th at Wetherby, to receive their Bread from Leeds, and their Shoes, Stockings, and Flannel Waistcoats from London, which met them at that Place.

Marshal Wade's whole whole Army will be at Doncaster to Night.

Nottingham, Dec 5. Yesterday in the Afternoon the Rebel Army began to come into the Town of Derby, and continued coming in till late at Night. They marched in such a Manner, as to make their Numbers appear as great as possible, and to render it extremely difficult to take an exact Account of them. They gave out, that they should march this Day to Leicester; but we have Advices, that they have continued at Derby till late this Evening, with their Artillery in the Market Place. Some of them talked as if should make a sudden March in order to slip the Duke of Cumberland's Army, whilst others said, that they should stay to see whether the Duke would come and give them Battle. They have levied the Excise there.

Nottingham

Nottingham, Dec. 6. This Morning early several Parties of the Highland Horse were in Motion in the Roads about Derby. Some of them seemed to be moving towards Loughborough, others kept on the Nibbaston Side. At 10 the whole returned to Derby, and then set out for Ashbourn. The Horse moved first, soon after pass'd their Artillery, consisting of 13 Pieces of Cannon, and then their main Body of Foot. They marched about a Mile from Derby, and then halted, when about 11 or 12 of their Officers came back thither, ordered a very large Sum to be raised instantly for the Use of their Army, which they carried off with them, and threatened Destruction to the whole Town, if they did not raise more. They seemed to be extremely out of Humour, and strip'd some Persons of their Cloaths, &c.

Whitehall, Dec 9 Letters of the 6th Instant, from the Army under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, mention, that the whole Cavalry, with two Battalions of Foot, marched that Day into Coventry, and that the Rest of the Infantry was encamped on Meriden Common: That his Royal Highness had received several concurrent Advices of the Rebels having left Derby on Friday Morning, and marched towards Ashburn, after having levied a great Sum upon the former Town, under Pain of military Execution.

Extract of a Letter from Dunbar, dated Dec 3

'This Afternoon we were advised, that Admiral Byng has 'taken and sent into the Frith, one of the French Transports 'with 250 Men; two of the same Fleet are on the Strand at Mon- 'trose, two at Stonehaven, and one or more suffered the same Fate 'at Peterhead, but it's reported the Men escaped out of those last 'mentioned.

CHARLES-TOWN, March 10.

Some Days since arrived here the Georgia Packet Flag of Truce, Capt. James Ramsay, from the Havanna: He brought from thence Eighteen English Prisoners, among which are, Capt Sylvanus Carr late of the Ship brought in here by Capts Carr and Dunbar of Rhode Island, and Capt. Wells Read, late of a Sloop from Boston for Jamaica.

We have Advice, that about a Fortnight before the Departure of this Flag of Truce, there sail'd from the Havanna two 60 Gun Ships (La Ferte and La Rosaria) for Porto-Rico and St. Domingo, with the annual Treasure, and in Company with them, a large and very rich Ship for Old Spain, of 50 Guns and 300 Men. And that there sail'd from the Havannah (in Company with Capt. Ramsay) bound for St. Augustine, the King's Snow, with 120,000 Pieces of Eight on board, Don Julian De La Vega, in a Brigt Privateer of 16 Carriage Guns, well mann'd (both well known on this Coast,) and Two French Privateers, suppos'd to be all in Consort; they carried with them Men, &c. to fit out another Privateer Snow or Billander at St. Augustine. These Privateers are all to cruize together, on this and the neighbouring Coasts, 'till they are victuall'd, (as Don Julian has said,) and then to proceed to the Spanish Main, in Hopes of partaking with Don Pedro Arriesbio in his Success there.

The above Account, had so alarm'd the coasting Commanders here, that for 10 Days past, every Time a Brigt hath been seen by them, (which has happen'd almost every Day of that Time) they have made the best of their Way into Port, reporting they had been chas'd by Don Julian off Cape Romain. But last Saturday arriv'd Capt. Watson from Lisbon, and dispell'd our Fears, by the following Account, viz. that on Friday being off the Cape afore mentioned, he spoke with a Brigt from Madeira, the Master of which told him, he had lost his Way, tho' he tho't himself upon the Carolina Coast, and had been for about 10 Days past cruizing about here, and endeavouring to speak to some of the Coasters for Intelligence, but as they all ran away from him, he did not know what it meant.

We have Accounts by the last Advices from Providence, that his Excellency John Tinker, Esq; Governor of the Bahama's had given Orders to man and equip the Spanish Galley with all Expedition, to sail on a Cruize against his Majesty's Enemies in Consortship with Capt. Dennis, and some other Privateers then in Providence; and that his Excellency had given the Command of the said Galley to Capt William Lyford, a Man of known Courage and Experience.

We have also Advice, that Capt. Miller, in a Brigt Privateer belonging to Virginia, had taken and carried into Providence, a very large French Ship, bound from Marseilles to the Cape, laden with Wine, Brandy, and a valuable Cargo of Velvets, Brocades, Silks, &c. She is esteemed one of the richest Prizes carried into that Port since the Spanish War.

Also, that Capt Andrew Hunter in the Privateer Sloop Hunter, belonging to Providence, had taken a considerable Prize on the Coast of Hispaniola, laden with Rum, dry Goods, and nine valuable Slaves, which he sent into Port and continued his Cruize; this Sloop has of late had very good Success, and is the same that Capt William Dutby formerly commanded — There never has been such a Fleet of fine Privateers as now in Providence Harbour; and as they were preparing to sail with all possible Dispatch upon a new Cruize, they will serve in a great Measure to protect the Islands from the Danger of the Enemy. We wish we could say as much of the neglected Coast of C——a, which is become of late defenceless to a Proverb.

Last Friday fen'night arrived a Schooner from Santee, the Master of which informs us, that the Day before a small Ship from Providence for this Port, was cast away on Cape-Romain Shoals, that had been taken by a Spanish Privateer on the 9th of February off Stono was, and afterwards retaken by our Privateer Mercury, Capt Lamprey, three Days after he sail'd on his Cruize, and sent for this Port. The above Schooner has brought 4 of the Spaniards to this Town.

By a Gentleman lately arrived from Virginia, we have the agreeable News of the Arrival there of 5 Transports with soldiers from Gibraltar, design'd to augment the Garrison of Cape-Breton; a sixth sail'd with these, but was yet missing when this Gentleman left Virginia, which was about a Month ago.

'Tis said there are 17 Spanish Privateers from the Havanna, preparing to cruize on the British American Coasts, this Summer, so that his Majesty's Ships will not want Occasion to cruize in their respective Stations.

We hear, that on Tuesday last Thomas Broughton, Esq; was married to the Relict of Mr. Charles Izard, an agreable young Lady of great Merit and Fortune. And,

On Thursday Mr. Charles Hill was also married to Miss Sarah Smith, a young Lady of good Accomplishments and a large Fortune.
